The Hydro-Pneumatic Fire Extingulaber. BRANCH OFFICE OF THE HYDRO-PNEURATIC FIRE EXTINGUISHER CO., 1350 F STRIKK N. W., Washington, D. C., December 22, 1879.) To the Editor of The Nutional Republican:

Washington, D. C., December 22, 1879.)

To the Editor of The National Republican:

Sin: An article appeared in yesterday's Sanday Guictle signed by "Jefferron," impugning the integrity of the Postoffice officials in the purchase of the Hydro-Pneumatic Fire Extinguishers for the protection of the City Postoffice, or Seaton building, against fire.

The facts stated in relation to the Hydro-Pneumantic Fire Extinguisher are and can easily be proven faise in all their particulars, both in relation to the Government Printing Office test and as to the "atter worthlessness" of the abovement and extinguisher.

The Postoffice officials bought the Hydro-Pneumantic after a fair and impartial test (which the cute for the Government Printing Office was not) by a committee of intelligent, irreproachable gentlement, appointed for the purpose, in which all were given an equal and a fair chance, and the Hydro-Pneumatic was successful in bealing its competitors, as it always does under auch circumstances, and was recommended and purchased.

The Government Printing Office test stands some chance of an investigation, as every one knows a forty-gallon machine is not a "portable," and as boards of naval officers, fire insurance experts, scientists and others, have unanimously pronounced in favor of the Hydro-Pneumatic, and the judges of the recent American Institute Pair recommended the award of the "Medal of Superiority" for it, over the "Baboock," "Champlon," "Connelly" and "Protective," all of which were represented.

The Hydro-Pneumatic is at all times ready to represented.

The Hydro-Paeumatic is at all times ready to contest against any of the above, or any other extinguisher, asking only "a fair field and no favor."

Very Respectfully, F. W. ESMERIN, General Agent. FOR STYLISH OVERCOATS GO TO EISEMAN BROS., COR. SEVENTH AND E.

Four Modern Dick Turplus Arrested by the Detectives.

During the past few weeks there have been ceveral cases of garroting and highway robbery in the neighborhood of Sixth and Seventh and N and O streets. One of the notable cases was that of Mr. L. H. Smith, No. 1516 Sixth street, who was knocked down and robbed on the night of the 7th inst. of a valuable gold watch. On the 14th inst., Mr. Henry Bogus, woo, lives on N street, got off a Seventh street car at N street, and had proceeded only a short distance from Seventh street, when he was knocked down and robbed of his pocketbook, outsiging about $100, Detectives Miller, Molbevit and McElfreeh for two or three days have been investigating these cases, and vesterday they completed their labors with the arrest of four men, James Dorsey and Thomas Hunter were apprehended for the robbery of Mr. Smith. It appears that Dorsey saw Mr. Smith pull out his watch and look at it, and then followed him until a favorable opportunity was offered to commit the robbery. Hunter says that Dorsey gave him the watch to sell, and that he had nothing to do with the robbery. The officers believe Hunter's story. For the robbery of Mr. Bogus two men named James Shreeves and Edward Callahan were arrested. Mr. Bogus, when he was assaulted, made a loud outers, shoulting. "murder" and "police" Three minutes after the cry of murder was heard Callahan went into a store on Seventh street, near by He was perspiring feely and appeared to have been making some great exertion. He seked for a light for a olgar, and the proprietor furn inquired if he knew what the cry of murder was about. Callehan answered, "No, I've Just came from home." A gentleman who was standing in the store, and who observed Callahan's appearance, says he was wet up to the knees. It was raining very hard that night. The prisoners will brobably have a hearing to-day before Judge Shell. Detective McDevitt, who is one of the candidates for the postmastership, has thus during the past day or two been prevented from working up his Four Modern Dick Turplus Arrested by the

be borne out by an inspection of the stock. The firm has just opened a line of velvet and Moquette body Brus els, and sapestry Brussels carpets with borders to match, three-ply and ingrain, star and hall Venetian carpets, of locates, lignums and line-leums of a richness of quality and a variety of patterns seldom found collected in one house. Many of their carpet patterns are special to this house, and caunot be duplicated elsowhere. In addition to these goods the firm has a full line of upholstery goods, lace curtains draperies and other house-furnishing goods. In placing this stock before the public the members of the firm say that they do so confident that in variety of styles and quality of goods their stock cannot be surpassed by any house of the kind in the United States.

ROSSLYN SKIMINARY If you intend to get your boy a suit of clothes this Christmas, or at any time, romember that B. Itohinson & Co., No. 509 Pennsylvania avenue, always keeps on hand a superb stock of clothing for boys. His prices are remarkably low. Mr. D. A. Brosnan, the bookseller, No. 812 Ninth treet northwest and 220 G street northwest has a sarge stock of books and goods suitable for the holidays, which he is solding at the lowest prices. Tersons in search of presents should give him a sall. One of the most popular instintions for the adu-cation of our girls is the Ressiyn Seminary, 150s. Latreet. This school is precided ever by persons enjoying the highest reputation as instructors in their several departments, and the graduates who every season procedim their release do credit to their obma mater. Miss B, Ross is the principal; Mrs. Siddons, teacher of elecution: Miss Belle Ogelen, English sesistant, and Professor M. Masson, teacher of French.

As most overjone who has money will replenish their wardrobe during the holidays gibes should remember that they can dispose of their second-hand clothing very profitably at Justh's well-known stand, No. 610 D street, or his branch store, No. 468 Khuth street. THE FIGUR OF THE FAMILY.

The flour manufactured by William H. Tenney & Sons at the Capital Mills, Georgetown, is known all over the land as being of the best and purest quality. The New South, Hongarism Patent and John Davidson, family brands, cannot be surpassed. When such flour is manufactured in the District there is no excuse for sending money to Western millers. Tenney's flour can be bought of any leading grocer or flour dealer.

CHRISTMAS HADS AND FURS.

CHRISTMAS HATS AND FURS. A visit to the establishment of Mr. B. H. Stinemetz, the well-known hatter and furrier, No. 1237 Pennsylvania avenue, fills the beholder with delight, the only difficulty being that, owing to the limites stock, a selection is a hard task. Every style of head-gear can be found here, and his stock of furs cannot be described on paper. The four quarters of the globe have been ransacked for novelites, and the display is a most creditable one. A seal-akin sacque is the acme of the average female's ambition, and at Stinemets's they can be suited to a nicety.

nale's ambition, suited to a nicety.

RYE CORDIAL. Driver's Rye Cordial has become the acknowledged cure for colds, coughs and all lung affections, having been recommended by physicians generally for this purpose. During the Christmas season it will be a handy article to have about the house, as aside from its beneficial qualities it is a very pelanable drink. The firset old rre whisky and white string rock candy are the principal ingredients, and the price puts it within the reach of everybody. The depot is at the northwest corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Four-and-a-half street, where Mr. Driver is always ready to welcome his triends.

CONNOLLY'S DRY GODDS. CONNOLLY'S DRY COODS.
